THE ARMENIAN AFFAIR.

ANOTHER ATTACK MADE ON THE

The United States Cruiser Marblehead Nestle's Ordered to Alexandretta to Protect American Interests.

A late Constantinople dispatch says: It is stated upon good authority that the total number of killed, wounded and missing Armenians up to date, as the result of the recent uprising, is over 700.

The Armenians have finally been induced to leave the churches and return to their homes.

Additional advices received on October 11th from Trebizond, Armenia, show that the Mussulmans attacked the Christians' quarters of that town and killed many Armenians. Others sought refuge outside of the town.

The Russian Government has dec ded to send a war ship to Trebizond.

The dragomans of the various Embassies, after receiving instructions from the different envoys of the powers to assist the Turkish authorities in prevailing upon the Armenians to loave the churches in which they had sought refuge after the outbreak, at first proceeded to the Armenian Church of Constantinople.

The dragomans of the British Embassy exhorted the Armenians to return to their houses, assuring them they had nothing to lear from the Turks, and the strongest assurances had been given to the representatives of the powers by the Turkish Government that the lives and property of the Atmenians would be projected. After consultation and domy wie lo-fugees declared they would not leave the church, except on the following conditions:

That amnesty be granted for political offenders; that they be permitted to retain the arms in their possession, that the prisons be opened for inspection by representatives of the powers, and that innocent prisoners be released. The dragomans refused to consider these propositions. In the meanwhile, however, the Armenian women and children had come out of the church, but when they noticed that the men had not forlowed them they returned, weeping and crying out that they would be killed if they returned to their homes alone, and saving they preferred to the the church.

The dragomans, in view of the obstinacy of the Armenians, held a conference during the afternoon with the Armenian Patriarch, after which, through the influence of that prelate, the evacuation of the Kumakopou Cathedral commenced. As the refugees left the cathedral the priests entered their names on a special list, while can-vassers searched them. When arms were found upon the persons of the Armentons they were taken from them and deposited in the from them and deposited in the the past. patriarchate.

The evacuation of the churches followed, the police not interfering with the work. In the Armenian Church of Constantinople it was subsequently announced that 1200 persons had sought refuge and 500 refugees had left the Kumakopou Cathedral.

On October 11th at the urgent request of Minister Terrell, for the protection of American missionaries in Turkey, at the matance of the State Department, the Navy Department has ordered the Marblehead to the Gulf of Iskenderoon or Alexandretta. Minister Terrell has telegraphed that orders have been issued in al. the provinces to protect Americans.

It is not believed that there is imminent danger of an outbreak, but the war ship has been ordered to Turkey rather as a precautionary measure. Last summer Admiral Kirkland took his two ships-the San Francisco and the Marblehead — into the same waters. There was no actual rioting in progress, but the situation had a threatening aspect. Though the American war ships could not get near the most disturbed provinces, the effect of their presence on the coast was most salutary, impressing the people, who, perhaps, had never before seen American men-of-war, with a visible sense of the power of this country. It is surmised that Minister Ler-
